Invitation you to submit a paper for the issue no. 2 (1/2017) of the Journal

Mobility in Europe and its surroundings is one major contribution to trade and investments, cultural exchanges as well as social and economic development. The EU has signed a number of agreements with its neighbours thus rendering mobility easier, without forgetting, however, that there are still cross-border issues that represent a threat to both EU and non-EU States and their respective populations.

This is the reason why the ongoing cooperation needs to be increased in order combat these threats more efficiently and to foster a secure environment for all citizens within the larger European Region.

Given the fact that through the European Neighbourhood Policy this cooperation was started but there are still many things to be done, the theme of the current issue of the Cross-Border Journal for International Studies is "Legal Developments and Evolutions within the European Neighbourhood Policy"
